RICK SEEDS BENEFIT DRAFT, RODEO AND AUCTION AT BRYMAROO

Tremendous support for a fellow competitor was clearly evident at the Rick Seeds Benefit Auction and Open Draft held at Brymaroo Rodeo & Campdraft grounds by both Cooyar and Brymaroo Campdraft committees.

An Invitational Bull Ride on Campbell Frame's legendary bulls set the scene for the night ahead when winner Jamie Hasted donated back some of his prize money as well as a set of unique hand-crafted spurs for the benefit auction later in the night.

The evening then proceeded to the embracing atmosphere of The Brymaroo Big Shed where appetites were sated with a delicious camp oven stew, cooked over the coals. Larry Cann chaired the Benefit Auction while auctioneer, Joe Lehman rustled up the bids.

So many people willingly contributed to the spirit of the evening. Local businesses, individuals and the supportive Campdraft, Rodeo and racing communities throughout Queensland and interstate donated 21 quality auction items. Bringing the auction to the end was a beautifully made Troy Welsh Fender Saddle purchased by Sarah Campbell who rode in it the following day for fourth place in the Open Draft.

Many thanks go to the amazingly generous supporters of the weekend including the NRA who helped us with the Rodeo component of the weekend, that combined with the Campdraft and Auction enabled us to present Rick and Sally Seeds with a cheque for $41,000.

Anyone who missed out donating and still wishes to there is still time to donate to our Benefit Fund to purchase items for Rick can contact Dave Wood 0407 629 120 or Paul Barron 0429 926 111 for account details.

Placegetters in the Bull Ride were as follows:
