When camping at rodeo grounds please respect the privilege to do so. Leave your area clean, tidy and free of rubbish. The last thing hard working committees should have to do is clean up messes left by the minority. Let's keep the grounds clean so everyone can continue to camp for years to come.

Josh Green – Executive Director – Committees

2020 is in the books and what a year to call my first year as an executive director of the National Rodeo Association.

COVID sure pulled us up in our tracks I just like to take this time to thank all the committees for sticking with us through the pandemic. To the committees that got to run their rodeos to the guys that slugged it out until the very last second before having to cancel your hard work and determination has not gone unnoticed and is greatly appreciated.

Hopefully 2021 can be a little brighter with COVID safe plans coming together for local shows and the NRA introducing the super and mega rodeo formats I'll be doing my best to work with our committees on what works best for them and see them continue to grow.

I'd like to thank the Cavanagh and granger families for bringing the Toorbul and Kilkivan series to our association in 2020 and looking forward to continuing into 2021 and beyond. Finally hats off to Dave Mawhinney and his crew at Goomeri for seeing 2020 out with the NRA's first super rodeo great turn out with great prize money for all competitors to compete for.

Josh Green

Lane Grayson – Operational Director – Saddle Ride

To whom it may concern,

2020 was a year that most of us will not forget, with the rodeo industry coming to a halt with the shutdown of all events due to COVID 19. However, this was not a complete let down for Bronc riders with opportunities arising such as the NRA clinics and jackpots being held, by all contractors. This gave insight to the sport for all young and upcoming cowboys and the boys wanting to improve on skills. Big thank you goes to the National Rodeo Association for the way they conducted their selves during this time, also to all contractors and the cowboys. I look forward to representing the Bronc riders of the NRA for 2021.

Yours Sincerely,

Lane Grayson

Brett Gallaway – Operational Director – Junior Events

As we all know, 2020 was a disappointing year for everyone but there were some good points for the NRA juniors.

The juniors got to have a finals and have champions crowned which was really appreciated. The finals were a really good day. Despite the heat, the atmosphere was great and I think everyone enjoyed the day. I would like to thank Marcus, Jo, Cooper and Nash Jones for all the work they did in getting the grounds ready and chasing up sponsors. I also thank all the officials that donated their time and worked so hard on a really hot day. I really want to thank the sponsors, both businesses and private sponsors. We had so many sponsors we were able to double the prizemoney for every event.

Congratulations to our junior champions, Jordyn O'Toole (junior barrels and junior breakaway, Nash Jones (under 15 steers/mini bulls and junior bulls) and Billy Gallaway (under 12 poddies/mini bulls). I think Jordyn turned thirteen last year and Nash fifteen so that's a great effort from them to champions in under 18 events.

Another good point for 2020 was the growth in the mini bulls for the under 12's and under 15's. They have come along in a big way this year. They seem to have brought a lot of new kids to our rodeos from both up north and from down south. A lot of these kids have membered up this year too, which is great. I think that they are the future. It keeps the protesters away and the kids love them.

I didn't hear of any instances of any misbehaviour from any juniors at rodeos this year, so that was a good point too.

Gene Hingst – Operational Director – Rope & Tie Event

Unfortunately, due to COVID-19 the year of 2020 was a challenge and not great for rodeo.

Going forward into 2021, we will hopefully get to compete more.

Rope & Tie as we are all aware has had some negative airtime as a result of animal welfare activists. We as an association we will continue to follow the Rope & Tie rules applied, maintaining animal welfare standards as required. I believe competitors all understand this need to ensure the longevity of the Rope & Tie event.

Best regards,

Gene Hingst

Shelley Harrison – Operational Director – Barrel Race Event

What a difficult year on both business and personal levels for our association and affiliates. I don't have too much to say as it's been a pretty quiet year from a directors point of view.

In the beginning of the year we had a few rodeos and there was some hotly contested barrel racing.

In August I ran a barrel racing school at the Whitwell's property with 2 fantastic instructors in Jo Jones and Cheyenne Whitwell. The girls braved a wet day to further their knowledge. Thanks to those that participated and helped me organise. Since the rodeos have kicked off, we again have had some great barrel racing happening.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank those people who have helped me set courses through the year and my Deputy Olivia Webb for attending those rodeos I could not.

Lastly, I wish Melissa Howard all the best this year as the new Director.

Shelley Harrison

Nicky Cavanagh – Operational Director – Breakaway Roping & Steer Undecorating Event

Well, we've all had a challenging year and you don't need to read it in my report to know how challenging the pandemic has been. Only a few rodeos got underway before shut down.

I was lucky enough to run a successful breakaway/ rope and tie/ steer undecorating clinic with a number of members / past and current champions helping instruct. Many thanks to everyone who came and helped or participated. I look forward to seeing you compete this 2021 year.

Thanks to Patty and Courtney in the office helping with COVID safe plans for the clinics. I was able to adapt the plan to run the "Toorbul COVID Series" timed event jackpots. I had so many helpers to run that I won't mention specific names as I'm likely to leave someone off.

Congrats to Goomeri for going ahead with the successful New Year's Eve Rodeo- the first of our Super Rodeos.

Hopefully COVID hasn't done too much damage to our committees who run events and we can get back to doing what we love more often.

Looking forward to the year ahead,

Nicky Cavanagh
